Biogeography and development in the humid tropics

A. H. Bunting: The humid tropics and the nature of development 5

R. F. Montgomery: Some characteristics of moist savanna soils and constraints on development with particular reference to Brazil and Nigeria 11

Anthony Young: Agroforestry and its potential to contribute to land development in the tropics 19

S. G. Reynolds: Some factors of importance in the integration of pastures and cattle with coconuts (Cocos nucifera) 31

J. Brandt: The transformation of rainfall energy by a tropical rain forest canopy in relation to soil erosion 41

Stephen Nortcliff and John B. Thornes: The dynamics of a tropical floodplain environment with reference to forest ecology 49

Stephen Nortcliff and Antonio Carlos D. C. P. Dias: The change in soil physical conditions resulting from forest clearance in the humid tropics 61

Chris Barrow: The impact of hydroelectric development on the Amazonian environment: with particular reference to the Tucuruí Project 67

Michael J. Eden and Angela Andrade: Colonos, agriculture and adaptation in the Colombian Amazon 79

J. P. Darch: Drained field agriculture in tropical Latin America: parallels from past to present 87

Peter A. Furley and James A. Ratter: Soil resources and plant communities of the central Brazilian cerrado and their development 97

S. Thompson: Range expansion by alien weeds in the coastal farmlands of Guyana 109

David Watts: Development and renewable resource depletion in the Caribbean 119

F. M. R. Hughes: The ecology of African floodplain forests in semi-arid and arid zones: a review 127

Neil Roberts: Dambos in development: management of a fragile ecological resource 141

M. Norton-Griffiths: Aerial point sampling for land use surveys 149

P. N. Bradley: Methodology for woodfuel development planning in the Kenyan highlands 157

A. W. Ngugi: Cultural aspects of fuelwood shortage in the Kenyan highlands 165

R. A. Pullan: Conservation and the development of national parks in the humid tropics of Africa 171

J. R. Flenley: Palynological evidence for land use changes in South-East Asia 185

M. J. G. Parnwell: Rural poverty, development and the environment: the case of North-East Thailand 199

T. C. D. Dargie and D. S. Epitawatta: Environment, succession and land-use potential in the semi-evergreen forests of southern Sri Lanka 209

A. J. M. Baker and R. R. Brooks: Botanical exploration for minerals in the humid topics 221
